

UKZN Special Collections Open Day 2013

Telling our stories through archives and museums

Campbell Collections
University of KwaZulu-Natal

Documentation Centre UKZN

The Alan Paton Centre
& Struggle Archives

Centre for African Literary Studies
"Celebrating the Best African Writing"

Archives
of the University of KwaZulu-Natal

You are cordially invited to attend the Special Collections of the University of KwaZulu-Natal Open Day 2013 on Thursday 15 August 2013 at 09:30 in the Colin Webb Hall, University of KwaZulu-Natal, Pietermaritzburg.

Presented by the Special Collections, UKZN

RSVP by Monday 12 August 2013 to :

033 260 5926

or email Nazim at gani@ukzn.ac.za

Programme

09h30 – 10h00	Tea and Registration
10h00 – 10h10	Programme Director: Pieter Nel
10h10 – 10h15	Welcome: Nora Buchanan
10h15 – 10h20	Introduction of guest speaker: Joyce Myeza
10h20 – 10h50	Key note speaker: Mr Verne Harris - 'Archives, Museums and the Work of Memory'
10h50 – 11h00	Musical item: Alexander High School (Marimba Band)
11h00 – 11h15	Professor John Aitchison: 'PACSA - first-hand account of crisis and compassion'
11h15 – 11h30	Professor Kalpana Hiralal: 'Struggle Heroines in South Africa'
11h30 – 11h45	Professor Mbongeni Malaba: 'Telling our story'
11h45 – 12h00	Musical item: Alexander High School (Marimba Band)
12h00 – 12h15	Professor Bill Guest: 'Exploring the University's history through the UKZN Archives'
12h15 – 12h30	Mr Mthoko Sibiyi: 'Experience of a local practitioner concerning the Land Restitution and Claims Process in South Africa: Using the Killie Campbell Africana Library and other historical resources as well as clan-family oral histories.'
12h30 – 12h45	Questions and discussion
12h45 – 13h00	Vote of thanks: Nazim Gani

Join us for a viewing of the various archive exhibitions.

A light lunch will be served.